CORAM; A.M.KHANWILKAR J. DATED 30.l.2006 P.C. . From the pleadings on record it is not possible to take a view that any change has been brought about on the suit property after the order was passed by the Commissioner on 7.7.2004.On the basis of such application it is not possible to initiate contempt action against the respondent. In future if the petitioner comes to the court with proper description of the breach and if a case is made out, that will be considered on its own merit. This petition is disposed of with the above observations.
